ILLICIT LOVE STORY

Widow Burdick Tells of Her Relations With Pennell.

APPEARED PALE AND WEARY,

But Withstood an Examination That Was Thorough and Searching.

LETTER AFTER LETTER PRODUCED.

Admissions Dragged From Her Bit by Bit, the District Attorney Probing Deep Into All the Details of the Liasion That Wrecked Two Homes—Essence of the Testimony.

Buffalo, N. Y., March 24.—The inquest into the murder of Edwin L. Burdick was resumed in the police court. The widow of the dead man continued her testimony. Before the hearing opened District Attorney Coatsworth said that beyond the continuation of Mrs. Burdick's hearing his plans had not been formed, and he would make no statement as to who would follow her. Mrs. Burdick's testimony of the previous day was devoted entirely to her relations with Pennell. People began to gather in front of the police court at an early hour, and when the doors were opened a rush was made for seats. There was a preponderance of women in the courtroom.

District Attorney Coatsworth's examination of Mrs. Burdick was all that had been promised—thorough, searching, probing deep into all the details of her relations with Pennell which led to the implacable enmity between Pennell and her husband.

Bit by bit the admissions were dragged from her as letter after letter was shown to her; how Pennell had made impassioned love to her and she had given him her heart in return; how her husband had discovered their guilty secret and driven her from home; how she had begged to be allowed to return, and promised to be a good mother and faithful wife; how for the sake of her children and his, Burdick had accepted her promise and taken her back; how she broke the promise again and again, and finally was driven away for the last time.

At one point Mr. Coatsworth showed a letter written from New York by Pennell and addressed to Mrs. Burdick. It was as follows: "As I looked into your beautiful eyes last night I feared there was some trouble hidden there. I did not know, but I feared it was because of some other reason than because I was going away. If there was, dearest, I wish you would tell me. There is that in the manner of your husband toward you that makes me fear sometimes that I might kill him."

It was 10:20 o'clock when Justice Murphy took his seat on the bench. Mr. Coatsworth arrived at the same time. A few minutes later Mrs. Burdick walked into court. The result of the previous day's ordeal was evidenced in her pale and worn appearance.

"There was an occasion about two years ago, when you and Mr. Burdick had quite an altercation at your house?" asked Mr. Coatsworth when Mrs. Burdick had taken her seat in the witness chair. "Yes, sir," was the reply.

"Did you at any time leave your family after you returned from Atlantic City in 1901, and prior to December, 1902?" "No, sir."

"Did Mr. Burdick?" "No, sir."

"You received a letter from your husband from Indianapolis in January last year?" "Yes, sir."

"I will read it. 'Received a letter today from A. R. P., the contents of which you are familiar. I shall decline to have any interview with him.' In that letter Burdick said he did not intend to come home again. Mrs. Burdick wrote a letter in reply in which she pleaded with her husband not to persist in his determination to sue for divorce. She made an appeal on behalf of the children, declaring that the divorce proceedings would crush the children, especially Marion. 'My God, Ed, this must not be. You can not be so cruel to us. You have been generous, continue to be so,' the letter concluded. Mrs. Burdick said she remembered having written it. It was dated Jan. 27, 1902."

"That letter was sufficient to induce him to return to his home?" queried Mr. Coatsworth.

In response to this Mrs. Burdick said she had an interview with her husband afterward at his office. She asked him to return to his home. He said he intended to. Witness said Pennell sought her constantly.

Jumped From a Window.
"On what date was it when you jumped out of the window on Seventh street?" "Dec. 2."

"What church did you go to after that?" "The Church of the Ascension."

"What did Burdick say to you when you returned home that night?" "I told him I had been to church. He said he knew where I had been, and he asked me why I did not let him in when he knocked. I said I would have if I had known it was him. He then told me that I would have to leave the house, and he advised me to communicate with Pennell."

The witness admitted in reply to further questions that the complaint in the divorce suit was served on her, the following day, Dec. 3. She left home then, going to Niagara Falls. She took her satchel and trunk, and all her clothes. She thought she was leaving home for good. Mr. Pennell accompanied her to the Falls. She denied that Pennell went with her to her hotel, but said she saw him the next day, when he visited her at the hotel.

Further on in her testimony Mrs. Burdick said she came to Buffalo one day during her stay at the Falls. She did not see her husband on that occasion. She saw her mother, however, by appointment made over the telephone. Her mother knew why she went to the Falls, witness said. "Mr. Burdick had told her he had caught me in a position which he could not overlook, and that I would have to leave. He said he did not blame me as much as he did Pennell; that Pennell was more to blame than I was."

Mrs. Pennell's Plea.

When she left the Falls finally the witness averred she came to Buffalo. Pennell met her at the station. They remained in the station and then she started for New York, reaching there the next morning. She went to a boardinghouse, and thence to a hotel in Fifty-ninth street. Mr. Pennell went to New York with her, staying seven days. Mrs. Pennell accompanied them. Pennell visited her every day. From New York witness left for Atlantic City.

Mr. Coatsworth showed a letter written by Mrs. Pennell, dated Dec. 29, 1902, to Burdick. In it Mrs. Pennell said she wanted to warn him and pleaded with him to take Mrs. Burdick home, and not blast the lives of his children. She told him Mrs. Burdick was about to leave New York for Atlantic City, and that he should call her back before she left. Another letter written by Mrs. Pennell to Burdick was read. It was another plea that he drop the divorce proceedings and consent to the return of Mrs. Burdick for the sake of his children, declaring that they needed a mother's love and care. Mrs. Pennell urged him to trust his wife once more.

The district attorney here reverted to the divorce action. Mrs. Burdick said that Pennell managed everything for her in relation to it. She denied that she had engaged the detectives who followed Burdick. Pennell did all that. Proceeding, Mrs. Burdick said she returned to Buffalo in a week or 10 days from Atlantic City to get the contents of the box in the safety deposit vault. She did so because Pennell had been refused access to it. She remained in Buffalo several days, stopping at a hotel.

"Mr. Burdick told me if I made no defense I could have the children half of the time, so I thought I had better not make a defense. Afterwards I thought I would make a defense and save my honor."

"Your honor?" "Yes, my honor."

Pennell Promised Marriage.

"At the time you and Pennell decided to put in no defense you supposed Pennell would get a divorce from his wife?" "Yes."

"And it was after Mrs. Pennell had refused to permit Pennell to get a divorce that you decided to defend your suit?" "No, Mrs. Pennell never positively refused or agreed."

"Did not Pennell tell you that his wife would not agree, and did you then decide to defend the suit?" "No, he decided that himself."

"What was Pennell going to do with you after you were divorced?" "He said he would go out west and get a divorce from his wife, and marry me."

Mrs. Burdick said she did not know that Pennell made provision for the payment of $25,000 to support her through life, and denied that he ever paid that sum. She did not know whether he had assigned any of his life insurance policies over to her. She did not know that Pennell had made any provision for her. Pennell went with her from New York to Atlantic City, and stayed there for a week. On the way to the train they talked about the divorce proceedings. He told her she need not worry; that everything was going on all right, and that she had a good defense; that she would get the divorce instead of her husband getting it.

Murder of Burdick.
"What were you engaged at Wednesday evening, Feb. 26?" "I think I was in my room in the hotel reading. I think I was tired and went to bed early."

"Did you receive a telegram from your mother next morning?" "Yes, a telegram that Mr. Burdick was dead."

"When you got the telegram from your mother announcing Burdick's death, what reply did you send?" "I replied that I would be home the following morning."

"Did you also telegraph to Pennell?" "Yes, I wired him to meet me at the station."

"You arrived that Friday morning; did you see Mrs. Hull?" "Yes, sir."

"Did you ask her how it happened?" "Why, yes; I said, 'Mamma, what in the world has happened?' and she said, 'Ed is dead, and he has been murdered right in his own house.'"

"Did you hear from Pennell that day?" "I got a brief note from him, in which he said he was sorry that he had been at the Falls when my telegram arrived, so he could not meet me." She did not reply she said, nor did she communicate with him in any way after that. She never saw Pennell again after he left her on the train going to Atlantic City.

Flying Passenger Train Crashes Into a Standing Freight.

Bloomington, Ills., March 24.—Traffic on the Peoria and Eastern branch of the Big Four was blocked by a costly collision between an eastbound passenger train and a westbound freight. The latter was on a sidetrack at Tremont, but the switch had been left open and the passenger crashed into the freight while going at a high rate of speed. Both engines were demolished, and much other damage caused to equipment. Eight persons were injured, none fatally. The four most badly hurt were: James Jarvis, conductor, Indianapolis; Miss Forney Russell, Tremont; John H. Isenmeyer, Peoria.

Subsidized Ocean Service.

London, March 24.—An agreement has been signed between the Dominion government and the Allen line for the establishment of a subsidized fast service between Canada and Glasgow and Liverpool. The agreement stipulates that the steamers are to make at least 21 knots, and specifications for a large steamer of this speed are now being prepared. The vessels will be built on the Clyde, on the Tyne and at Belfast. The service will be started within two years. To facilitate the carrying out of the contract an important agreement has been entered into between the Allan line and the Grand Trunk railroad of Canada.

Coal Barges Sink.

Pittsburg, March 24.—Sixty-four barges of coal belonging to the Jones & Laughlin Steel company were swept from their moorings above the Twenty-second street bridge by the rising water, and 32 of the barges were sunk in the Monongahela river. Many of the barges were wrecked, while going over the dam, but a large number were sunk by coming in contact with the Panhandle, Smithfield street and Point bridges. Several lie in the regular channel of the river, making it dangerous for all vessels, and it is thought blasting will have to be resorted to in order to clear the river bed. The loss will be heavy.

Murderer Electrocuted.

Plattsburg, N. Y., March 24.—"Whitey" Sullivan was electrocuted at Dannemora prison for the murder of Mathew Wilson, nightwatchman of the First National bank of Cobleskill on Nov. 26, 1900. Sullivan was a member of a gang that tried to rob the bank on that night, and Wilson was shot in a fight with the thieves. "Gow" Hinch, another of the gang, is in Dannemora prison under sentence of death for participation in the same crime.

Senator Hanna's Daughter Ill.

Cleveland, March 24.—Senator Hanna, who arrived here to take part in the municipal campaign, received a number of telegrams from Thomasville, Ga., concerning the serious illness of his daughter, Ruth, who is suffering there from typhoid fever. While Miss Hanna's condition is not as yet alarming, the senator is greatly worried and may decide to break some of his engagements and go to Thomasville shortly.

Louise's Official Title.

Vienne, March 24.—It is learned from an authoritative source that the former Crown Princess Louise will in future bear the official title of Princess Louise of Tuscany, with honors due a royal highness. Her father, the Grand Duke of Tuscany, has the prerogative of granting titles, and has conferred this one upon his daughter with the consent of the emperor.

BORN IN MAYSVILLE.

Mrs. Adelia Dawson, a Relative of the Januaries, Passed Away Monday in Cincinnati.

[Egquirer.]

Adelia Dawson died Monday at the residence of her son, Mr. J. M. Dawson, the attorney of this city. She was born May 25th, 1816, at Maysville, Ky., and was the daughter of Dr. Mathias Winans, who came to Greene County, Ohio, as one of the early settlers and pioneers of the State. Her mother was of the well-known January family of Kentucky. In 1832 she was married to Dr. John Dawson, of Jamestown, O., who afterward moved to Columbus and became a professor in Sterling Medical College and editor of the Ohio Medical and Surgical Journal. Five of their twelve children survive, among them Frances D. Follett, widow of the late John F. Follett, and Joshua W. Dawson, the attorney of this city. The burial will be at Columbus.

COAL MEN RESTRAINED

From Continuing Their Combination to Regulate Prices and Output.

CASE NOW IN UNITED STATES COURT.

Indiana Companies Are the Defendants and They Are Given Until April 6 to Show Why Injunction Should Not Be Permanent.

Chicago, March 24.—Ten Indiana coal companies and ten individual operators were restrained by Judge Kohlsaat in the United States circuit court from continuing their combination for the regulation of coal prices and output. The defendants were given until April 6 to show cause why the order should not be made perpetual.

The corporations and individuals enjoined are the same recently tried in the state court on the charge of raising the price of coal and restricting the output in Illinois, thus causing the coal famine in Chicago last winter. Judge Chetlain dismissed the case on the grounds that the offense committed was against the federal law and not against the statutes of Illinois. The defendants are: The Crescent Coal and Mining company, Brattle Creek Coal company, Wabash Valley Coal company, Oak Hill Coal and Mining company, Coal Bluff Mining company, Parke County Coal company, Glenn Oak Coal and Mining company, Nevins Coal company, Indiana Fuel company, McClellan Sons & company, corporations; Jane Shirkie, Walter S. Bogle, Hugh Shirkie, Max Richberg, J. J. Higgins, J. Smith Talley, Joseph Martin, Edward Shirkie, H. R. McClellan and John Shirkie.

The injunction granted will stand until further order of court. It recites that the action of the court is taken upon the application of United States District Attorney S. H. Bethea, and upon the affidavits of Assistant States Attorney Albert C. Barnes. The defendants are restrained from entering into any combination among themselves to ship the bituminous coal mined and to be mined on their property in Indiana to the Crescent Coal and Mining company in Chicago, for uniform sale by that company to consumers, in carload lots, on their several accounts, at prices arbitrarily fixed by them or their representatives, in such a manner as to destroy competition between themselves as to the sale of such coal as is or may be the subject of commerce among the several states and in violation of the Sherman act.

FIREMEN OVERCOME

In a Fire That Damages a Large Building at Pittsburg.

Pittsburg, March 24.—Fire broke out in the large 8-story brick building occupied by the McElveen Furniture company, and before the flames were controlled the three upper floors were gutted and the stock of the lower floors was badly damaged by water. The fire started in the packing room on the fifth floor, and spread so rapidly that for a time it was feared the entire structure would be destroyed. On the upper floors of the latter building many girls and women were employed in the manufacture of clothing, and a panic ensued, but all reached the street in safety. Two firemen, Daniel Jackson and Harry Schaeckler, were overcome by the smoke and were carried out of the building unconscious, but it is thought they will recover. The loss is estimated at $150,000.

Eruption of Soufriere.

London, March 24.—The colonial office has received a dispatch from the governor of the Windward islands, Sir Robert Llewellyn, from the island of Grenada, which says the features of the eruption of the Soufriere, on the island of St. Vincent, are the immense clouds of smoke and the comparative absence of lightning. No damage has been done to Georgetown, St. Vincent, beyond a heavy fall of sand and small stones to the depth of two to three inches. The governor adds that the volcano quieted down during the afternoon. The date of this eruption is not given, but it presumably refers to that of March 21.

New Coke Ovens.

Huntington, W. Va., March 24.—The United States Steel corporation put in operation more than 1,500 new coke ovens on Tug river. As many more will be completed within 30 days. This will be the greatest coking field in the state.

Captured Town Relieved.

Manilla, March 24.—The town of Surigao, in the northwestern part of the island of Mindanao, which was captured Sunday by Ladrones, has been relieved. The American officials and foreigners were found to be safe.

It is the non-vaccinated person who is a menace to the community in these times.

ACCORDING to the report of the Strike Commission the loss by the anthracite strike last season reached close to $100,000,000 in round numbers—figures that furnish a tremendous argument in favor of arbitration.

A TRAVELING man who was in Maysville Tuesday says Columbus, O., has had 1,500 cases of smallpox. Of these 95 per cent. were persons who had never been vaccinated. Another strong argument in favor of vaccination.

IN Germany, when a child reaches a certain age, its parents are by law compelled to have it vaccinated. In former times thousands of people died annually in that country of smallpox, but under the compulsory vaccination law, Germany is now practically rid of the scourge.

EX-COLLECTOR SAPP, of Louisville, has had to toe the mark. He pleaded guilty Monday to the charge of violating the civil service laws by levying assessments against employes of the revenue service for political purposes and was fined $500. Two of his subordinates were also fined on a like charge. The anti-Sapp faction now have their inning, but Mr. Sapp and his crowd will probably be heard from later.

MR. ROBERT L. GREENE, candidate for Clerk of the Court of Appeals, enjoys the distinction of being the first candidate to deposit with Chairman Young the entrance fee for the Democratic State primary May 9. Mr. Green sent in his check more than a week in advance of any other candidate for State offices. Under the call for the primary all candidates in order to get their names upon the ballot must qualify not later than April 1. Mr. Greene is a Bracken Countian, and deserves to poll a very large vote in this section.

THE socialist party is the first in the field with a State ticket. At the convention in Newport, Adam Nagel of that city was named for Governor. The rest of the ticket is as follows: For Lieutenant Governor, F. R. Markert, of Louisville; for State Treasurer, James Pocock, of Bellevue; for Auditor of Public Accounts, J. C. Welis, of Louisville; for State Secretary, Olaf Pearson, of Ashland; for Superintendent of Public Institutions, Daniel Bond, of Science Hill; for Agricultural and Labor Commissioner, E. Lewis, of Covington; for Clerk of Court of Appeals, Daniel McMath, of Bracken County. There has been a marked increase in the socialist vote throughout the country in recent years.

DON'T OVERLOOK THIS.
 A Careful Perusal Will Prove Its Value to Every Maysville Reader.

The average man is a doubter and there is little wonder that this is so. Misrepresentation makes people skeptics. Now-a-days the public ask for better evidence than the testimony of strangers. Here is proof which should convince every Maysville reader.

Mrs. C. J. Sweet, of 713 East Second street, says: Doan's Kidney Pills ended pain in my back which had annoyed me for a considerable time. My mother, Mrs. A. F. Sweet, also used this remedy and values it highly. Mr. Sweet got Doan's Kidney Pills for me at J. Jas. Wood & Son's drug store, corner of West Second and Market streets. We are only too pleased to recommend a preparation which has proven so reliable and effective as did Doan's Kidney Pills."

CONTEST AHEAD

For Beckham, No Matter How the Present Suit Ends—Republicans Will Test the Question.

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 23.—The Kentucky Court of Appeals will adjourn this week for the annual recess between the January and April terms, and before it adjourns will, of course, take action in the Beckham eligibility suit and the Meacham anti-primary suit. Just how the court will decide these suits and the effect of the decisions on the political situation in the State is a most absorbing question to thousands of voters just at this time.

The majority of the most eminent lawyers agree that the court will likely adhere to former adjudications and hold that it has no jurisdiction in either case. If this be correct then the questions as to the eligibility of Governor Beckham and the legality of the primary remains unsettled and a consequent menace to harmony in the party. Conceding that Governor Beckham will be nominated and receive the majority of the votes in November if his eligibility is not passed on by the Court of Appeals, then it is the expressed intention of the Republicans to contest his election on the ground of his ineligibility under the Constitution and to take the contest to the United States Supreme Court for final adjudication. They say it is true that in the case of Taylor vs. Beckham the Supreme Court declined to take jurisdiction of the contest, but that was because it was a question of facts as to whether illegal votes were cast or not; that in the contest against Beckham this fall it will be a question solely of constitutional construction, and that the United States Supreme Court in the case of Boyd vs. Thayer, from Nebraska, decided that it had and would take jurisdiction in State election contests where the construction of a State constitution is involved.

On the other hand, if the Kentucky Court of Appeals decides that it has jurisdiction of the present cases and holds that Governor Beckham is eligible for re-election, it is claimed by the Republicans that such a decision will not in any way preclude a contest on the same grounds before the Legislature or in the courts after his election in November.

If the Court of Appeals declines to take jurisdiction of the present suits it is not known what the State Executive Committee will do, but it is presumed that the refusal of the sub-committee to place Governor Beckham's name on the ballot will be rescinded and his name will go on the ballot just as if no suit had ever been filed to compel the committee to put it on.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Charles Bratton takes place Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the family home on East Front street, the interment following in the Maysville Cemetery. Her death occurred Monday afternoon after a lingering illness from consumption. Her husband, with one little daughter, survives her. Mrs. Bratton was Miss Nellie Jennings before her marriage.

GOOD SEEDS GROW GOOD CROPS.

That's why you should buy Landreth's Seeds, as you get fresh seeds and of known variety. All Landreth's Seeds were grown last year, from seeds whose variety had been proved, and under the most favorable conditions for each kind. They had the precise attention to details in gathering, &c., which only the practical seed grower knows how to give. All this should make them worth more to you than seeds picked up here, there and anywhere, but we sell them as low as you pay for the inferior kinds.

We are exclusive agents in Maysville for Landreth's Seeds.

"IT IS A WONDERFUL ARRAY OF Spring Garments!

WE PLACE BEFORE YOU THIS SEASON."

Most of them the production of Rochester's best manufacturers. Every line of them confined to us. The quantities we yearly handle of these goods enable us to buy them at prices that affords us to sell them at perhaps a shade cheaper than you have to pay for clothing that does not compare with ours. You owe it to yourself to look at our clothing before you buy your Spring Outfit.

Our shirt stock will be found a revelation. Look in our West Window. Said a gentleman a day or two since who bought them with the privilege of returning them if they do not fit, "Mr. Hechinger, I usually have my shirts made to order, but never was as well fitted as in these." We have such confidence in our shirts that we sell them on approval. If fit unsatisfactory return them and get your money back. You will soon discard your winter shoes. Try a pair of our New Douglas or Hanan shoes. Our stock is now at its best in both lines. You know we guarantee every pair. Have you seen Stetson's newest designs in Spring Hats? If you have not come in and let us show them to you. They range from $3 to $5. Let us show you the very newest fads in fancy vests. They are going to be very popular. Your wardrobe is not complete without one.

ECONOMY Is What the Times Demand!

Money saved is the easiest money made. You may wear cheap clothing and be respectable, but you can't eat impure and unwholesome food and be healthy for any length of time. So when it comes to buying supplies for your table it is economy to buy the best. My annual CUT PRICE sale for CASH is now on, and when I say cash price that is what it is.

I am now rounding up my twenty-third year in Maysville. During that entire time I have worked hard and incessantly to build a trade for first-class goods and to establish and hold a reputation for honorable and fair dealing. My success in business has proved to me that I have not worked in vain. My business has steadily increased from the beginning. I intend to continue in the same old way. For your very liberal support you have my most sincere thanks, and I most respectfully ask for a continuance of same. I want country people when in our city to visit my store and make it their headquarters. You are always welcome.

Remember, I run two delivery wagons, and it is always a pleasure to deliver goods.

INJURED ON C. AND O.

Fireman Terry Wesley Had Skull Fractured and Brakeman Howard Loses an Arm.

Two accidents occurred on the C. and O. at this point this morning within half an hour.

At 4:30 o'clock, Terry Wesley, fireman on extra freight 296, coming east, was looking out of the cab window at a point near the Pogue distillery, when his head collided with a switch stand, and his skull was badly fractured by the force of the blow. He was brought to the station, placed on board the Maysville accommodation No. 19, and taken to the hospital at Covington. Wesley was in convulsions when the train left, and death may have resulted before the train reached Covington. There is some hope for his recovery if he survives long enough to have the skull trephined, and the pressure on the brain relieved. He is about twenty-two years old, married, and lives at Russell. His wife was notified in time to catch No. 1 for Covington.

At 5 a. m., Frank Howard, a brakeman, connected with the local yard crew, was assisting in "poling" a car on a siding near the depot when his right arm was caught between the pole and the car, and crushed near the elbow. He was soon afterward removed to the office of Dr. Reed, where the arm was amputated, Drs. Brand and Yazell assisting. The arm was taken off just above the elbow.

Howard is about twenty-two, single, and lives at Garrison. He was taken to the hospital at Huntington on the 10 o'clock train.

Mr. Andrew Hunter, living on south side of Forest avenue, at Poplar street, is reported ill with smallpox. A cigar-maker named Hall, living opposite Amazon Hall on Lexington street, is also reported sick with the disease.

PERSONAL.

—Mr. David C. Frazee, of Lexington, was here yesterday and returned to his home to-day.

—Mrs. Edward Walton and son and Mrs. W. P. Walton, of Mayslick, were in Covington last week attending the funeral of their nephew, Mr. Isaac Freeman.

Easter opening Wednesday, April 1st, at Mrs. O. B. Stitt's.

Rev. T. G. Williams, of Aberdeen, was Tuesday authorized by the County Court to solemnize the rites of matrimony.

False Report Corrected.

The colored school at Bernard has been temporarily closed on account of the wild rumor that smallpox had broken out in the family of Mr. Thomas L. Best, and the family of his colored tenant, John Taylor. There is no truth whatever in the rumor,—it has the same foundation as some other rumors started in the same neighborhood. Mr. Best and his family are in their usual good health, and so are his tenants. School will resume Monday, the 30th.

Wheeling Telegraph: "The fine new showboat that has been in the process of building at Parkersburg for the last six months for the Elsinorth people is now completed and will be removed from the docks the first part of next week. The seating capacity of the auditorium is 1,000, and this room is being fitted out with benches that are modern in every degree. The towboat Enos Taylor will be employed in towing the pleasure boat."

Wheeling Register: "Captain Gordon Green has contracted at Marietta with Knox & Son for the building of his new sidewheeler for the Pittsburg and Kanawha river trade. She will be 209 feet in length and twenty-one and one-half feet beam, with cylinders fifteen inches by six feet. She will have fine passenger accommodations, will have all the latest appliances and improvements, and will be the first sidewheel boat ever built for the trade. It is expected that the new boat will be completed and ready for service by the first of July next."
